3 Ways to Keep Your New Year's Resolutions

I have a Commit 30 planner I bought where I can write down 30-day goals and track how well I succeed with them!

I like to attach positive words and phrases to my resolutions. For instance, I plan to do a better job with meal-prepping, so my resolution is "easy meal-prepping." I remind myself daily that this is easy, and I can do it.

After a car accident, it's you vs. the insurance company.

The key to receiving the money you deserve for your injuries is knowing the dirty tricks car insurance companies use. Here's 1 of them:

DIRTY TRICK #1:

The insurance company will offer to pay only copays instead of the full amount of your medical bills.

In Virginia, you are entitled to payment for all reasonable medical bills incurred. This means you are entitled to payment for the actual charge made by the hospital or healthcare provider, not just your copays.

Stacey B.'s Classic Coffee Cake Recipe

Our amazing legal assistant shares her favorite dessert recipe!

- 1 stick of softened butter
- 1 teaspoon salt (optional)
- 2 eggs
- 1 teaspoon baking soda
- 1 cup of sour cream
- 1 teaspoon baking powder
- 1 cup of sugar
- 1 cup of chopped walnuts
- 2 cups of flour
- 1 can of cranberry sauce

Butter and flour your bundt pan and preheat oven to 325 degrees. In a bowl, mix the flour, salt, baking soda, and powder. Take 1/3 of the cranberry sauce from the can and flatten with fork on a plate. Mix 1 stick of softened butter and 1 cup of sugar until blended well. Add one egg at a time until blended. Next, add the wet mixture to the dry mixture slowly, using a spatula to help blend.

In the bundt pan, layer half of the batter, some of the chopped nuts, and some of the cranberry sauce (use as much or as little as you prefer). Pour the remaining mixture on top and repeat the layers of nuts and cranberry sauce. Place in the oven and bake for 35 - 40 minutes. Enjoy!
