

COOPER HURLEY INJURY LAWYERS
THE CAR CRASH EXPERTS

Help Us Support Hampton Roads Schools, Friend!

The Car Crash Experts are donating $17,500 to three Hampton Roads elementary, middle, or high schools this Fall through our Vote For A School contest. Your votes will decide who wins!

Imagine the impact your favorite school could make with $10,000 in funding.

- What kind of new equipment or supplies could be bought?
- How many programs or activities could be funded?
- How many students would have an opportunity to better learn?

Your friends at Cooper Hurley Injury Lawyers want to help you find out through our Vote For A School contest happening right now.

All it takes is your vote. Help your favorite school win by casting it HERE – it takes less than a minute. We can't wait to see your favorite school's name on the list of nominees! Good luck!

$2.5 MILLION SETTLEMENT

Case of the Month: $2.5 MILLION for Army Mechanic Discharged After Car Accident Injury

Our client was injured when another driver made an illegal U-turn and caused a collision. He suffered a serious shoulder injury requiring multiple surgeries and was ultimately medically discharged from the Army, ending his plans for a full military career. Thanks to the hard work of attorney Griffin O'Hanlon, we secured a $2.5 million settlement to help our client move forward with his life.

Saluting Our 757 Heroes with a Sweet Surprise

We kicked off our Salute Our 757 Heroes initiative by bringing an ice cream truck to one of Norfolk's firehouses to thank the incredible first responders who keep our community safe. It was a small gesture of appreciation—and a sweet way to say thank you! (Fun fact: one of the officers there once rescued our very own Ty when she was stuck in an elevator!)
