Attorney Roger Schafer Runs Eggleston OK5K to Support Adults with Disabilities

Roger Schafer, our newest attorney and an avid runner, recently ran the 16th Annual Eggleston OK5K at Virginia Wesleyan University. The event supports Eggleston Services, a nonprofit that helps adults with disabilities find jobs and connect with their community. Proceeds also benefit programs for brain injury, veterans, and day support. We're proud to have Roger representing Cooper Hurley Injury Lawyers in giving back to our community.

Attorneys John Cooper and Bailey Gifford Partner with Local Bar Association

We believe in supporting the legal community so we can better serve those who count on us. Recently, Cooper Hurley Injury Lawyers sponsored a continuing legal education (CLE) event hosted by the Virginia Beach Bar Association. Attorneys John Cooper and Bailey Gifford joined a panel discussion to share their insights on recent changes in auto accident insurance law and the importance of ethics in injury law. Special thanks to Aaron Kass, Larry Lambert, and the Virginia Beach Bar Association for making the event possible.

July's Case Of The Month

Every year, Virginia Lawyers Weekly highlights the top settlements across the state. Our July Case of the Month features one of those standout results: a $2.5 million recovery for a local Army service member injured in a serious crash. This case reflects the strategic work our team puts into every file and underscores why we're trusted as The Car Crash Experts. We're proud to fight for those who serve, and to deliver results that make a real difference. Watch the video to learn more about this top case.
