COOPER HURLEY INJURY LAWYERS

THE* CAR CRASH EXPERTS

We need your help to win “Best Law Firm Overall” in Coastal Virginia, Friend

Each year, CoVaBIZ Magazine asks Hampton Roads to vote for their favorite businesses across Tidewater. You’ve voted us “Best Law Firm Overall” before—will you do it again? Awards like this signal to our neighbors in need that we’re trustworthy and here to help when they’re hurt. Find us in the “Business to Business – Best Law Firm Overall” category to cast your vote.

[Case of the Month] $245K for Injured Railroad Worker

Our client was seriously injured after being shocked by a live electrical wire that should have been secured, sending him to the ICU with severe burns. Cooper Hurley Injury Lawyers uncovered federal safety violations and secured a $245,000 settlement, helping this longtime railroad worker fully recover and return to work.

Cooper Hurley Injury Lawyers Takes the Plunge for Special Olympics Virginia

Cooper Hurley Injury Lawyers is proud to support Special Olympics Virginia by recently contributing $500 to Team Inclusion—a group of local athletes, family members, and friends—for the 2026 Polar Plunge. In addition to the donation, several of our team members took the plunge in Virginia Beach on February 7th to help raise funds and awareness for this meaningful cause.

Griff O'Hanlon Talks “Black Box Investigations” on Coast Live

Black box data can change everything after a wreck, but it takes an expert to know what to look for. Last month, attorney Griff O’Hanlon appeared on Coast Live to discuss how event data recorders work, what information they capture, and how they help build (or break) personal injury cases.
